of the spirit of the times, and met to enthusiastically welcome the expounders of Democracy, pure and simple. This was the third meeting held by the Democratic committee at Heavening the spirit of t The people of Hooper had a rousing meet-ties. He showed that the policy of the Republicans has clearly been to discriminate in legislation by taxing one class for the benefit of the other.

The spenker also told of the extravagant appropriations made to squander money in order to make an excuse for taxation. Instead of a decrease the public debt for May Increased over two millions, occasioned by the extravagant and unauthorized appropriations of the last congress.

Carey arrested William Pierce and his alged plural wife, Martha Jackson, in this city yesterday for unlawful cohabitation. Both were taken before Commissioner Bishop and released on $1,500 bends.

BEAUTIFUL WORK!

Increased over two millions, occasioned by the extravagant and unauthorized appropriations of the last congress.

Hon C. C. Richards followed with an able address. He took up the federal election bill advocated by the Republicans tending to piace in the power of circuit judges sitting in a distant state the power to appoint all the registration officers and judges of election for all the states within his circuit. This judge to be appointed by the president of the United States for life and the election and registration officers would be amenable to no one for their conduct. He compared this plan to a similar one here—the Utah Commission. Have you not enough of such legislation as this in a free country? Do you approve of such legislation that takes from the people the right to select its own officers? The reason assigned for this monarchial legislation is to composite southerners to send up black representatives. If Republicans have such a desire to see negroes in Congress, why do they not send negro representatives from Ohio and Peonsylvania? Why do they not put negroes in the cabinet!

Mr. Richards spoke of the billion dollar congress, which spent over $250,000.

Mr. Richards spoke of the billion dollar congress, which spent over $250,000,000 in excess of the apropriations of any other Congress and the treasury is almost bankrupt. During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1890, 48,000 pensions were added to the roll, making a total of nearly 600,000, an increase in pensions of $18,000,000. Just think of it! More pensioners are in the United States than all the people employed in all the pines in the people employed in all the mines in the union.

At the conclusion of this interesting meeting the club was organized. Nearly all the voters in the house enrolled themselves elected Emery W. Soule, president; James Buce, vice-president; John Manning, second vice-president; George Towers, secretary; James Johnson, treasurer. The club adjourned to meet next Monday evening at 8 o'clock, to elect the executive committee and adopt the constitution.

Lewis and Joseph S. Peery, of this city. Prof. Lewis was the first speaker and was loudly appleaded through the course of his remarks. He repudiated the statement recently made in the Standard, and which the Republicans are endeavoring to falsely impress upon the minds of voters throughout the country, to the effect that all replays in the late war were Democratis. and that the cause of the great and bloody contest was due to the Democratic party. He so completely dissected the argument that no same Republican can possibly produce such a statement before an Ulntah audience without being vigorously called down. He showed clearly how many of the leaders of the southern confate. ence without being vigorously called down. He showed clearly how many of the leaders of the southern confedercy, Alexander H. Stephens, for example, clung firmly to the principles of Whigism, from which the Republican party sprouted. He defined how the Democratic party through all the years of its existence, in which Jefferson an simplicity had never been found faltering, had ever remained true to the consti-tution of the United States. Joseph S. Peery followed and delivered an able speech on the robber tariff which was enthusiastically received.

A club will be organized at Uintah in the near future.

Windsor and Surgeons Successfully Straighten a Cross Eye for Miss

Nina West. Prof. William Windsor, LL. B., the eminent phrenologist, and his distinguished staff of surgeons and specialists are meeting with the success due to high professional skill. For the past month their rooms at the Hotel Templeton have been crowded with applicants for relief from many and varied forms of chronic disease, while Prof. Windsor's lectures have delighted large audiences. Scores of patients have been discharged cured, while many others have been turned away by these conscientious practitioners as incurable, in all such cases fees being absolutely refused, it being Prof. Windsor's alisolute rule to undertake no case when substantial benefit cannot be assured. tial benefit cannot be assured.

A beautiful piece of surgery was performed at the Hotel Templeton lisst Friday. The subject operated upon was Miss Nins West, a remarkably attractive young lady, aged nineteen, who resides at No. 160 South Third East street, with Mrs. A. Munrennon. The operation consisted in straightening the left eye, which had been crossed since infancy. In conversation with the city editor of The Herald, Miss West described the operation as a painless Appearance of an Officer. Last night a stranger named Andrew Velin was drinking in a Commercial street saloon and displayed considerable money. The sight of the roll inspired a negro named Tom Fletcher, who was present, with the idea of holding Velin up. When the latter left the saloon, the coon followed him until he reached an alley-way on West Temple street, opposite the Continental hotel, when he attempted to hold Velin up. That he did not succeed was due entirely to the sudden appearance on the scene of to the sudden appearance on the scene of Sergesnt Donovan, who arrested Flotcher while he was in the act of robbing his vic-tim.
